Biography

Frank Hill is a Senior Wealth Manager and Partner at Meritrust Wealth Management. In 2007, after 15 years in private practice, he merged his business with Mertitrust. Today he serves a clientele of predominately high-net-worth individuals and business owners.

Frank is a Certified Financial Planner™ Practitioner and provides his clients with a full range of financial products and investment advisory services. His focus is on financial and estate planning strategies for business owners and individuals, with an expertise in helping business owners as they work toward successfully exiting their businesses.

Frank enjoys travel, golf, tennis and spending time with his twin daughters, Tori and Tate.
